

I paint abstractly as well as using images that range from plant forms to bits of architecture. Childrens drawings, cartoons and fabric designs. They carry a dense, uncensored quantity of information, using many seemingly unrelated images. The large landscapes involve drama, mystery and melancholy.

My recent work involves very heavy textures